SAAP Act 1994. txt

This Preamble sets out considerations taken into account by the Parliament of Australia in enacting the law that follows.

The Parliament recognises the need to redress social inequalities and to achieve a reduction in poverty and the amelioration of the consequences of poverty for individuals.

Homeless people form one of the most powerless and marginalised groups in society. Responses to their needs should aim to empower them and to maximise their independence. These responses should be provided in a way that respects their dignity as individuals, enhances their self-esteem, is sensitive to their social and economic circumstances, and respects their cultural backgrounds and their beliefs.

Australia has acted to protect the rights of all of its citizens, including people who are homeless or at risk of homelessness, by recognising international standards for the protection of universal human rights and fundamental freedoms through:

- (a) the ratification of the International Covenants on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights and on Civil and Political Rights; and
- (b) the ratification of the Conventions on the Elimination of all Forms of Racial Discrimination, on the Elimination of all Forms of Discrimination against Women and on the Rights of the Child; and
- (c) the acceptance of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and of the Declaration on the Elimination of Violence Against Women; and
- (d) the enactment of legislation such as the Human Rights and Equal Opportunity Commission Act 1986.

Legislation relating to homeless people should include a focus on the provision of appropriate support to meet the individual needs of the clients of the Supported Accommodation Assistance Program ("SAAP") and on their right to an equitable share of the community's resources.

It is essential then that the community has the opportunity to be involved in the development of policies relating to, or impacting on, people who are homeless or at risk of homelessness. Accordingly, the Parliament intends that, under the law that follows, the Minister should establish an advisory committee drawn from members of the community with:

- (a) relevant expertise in, or experience of, homelessness; or
- (b) an understanding of the principal issues affecting homeless people; or
- (c) other relevant expertise or experience.

The Parliament intends that the Commonwealth Government should work co-operatively with State and Territory governments to ensure that people who are homeless or at risk of homelessness are given opportunities to redress their circumstances and that their universal human rights are not prejudiced by the manner in which services are provided to them.

Definition of "homeless"

SECT

When a person is homeless

4. (1) For the purposes of this Act, a person is homeless if, and only if, he or she has inadequate access to safe and secure housing.

Inadequate access to safe and secure housing

(2) For the purposes of this Act, a person is taken to have inadequate access to safe and secure housing if the only housing to which the person has access:

(a) damages, or is likely to damage, the person's health; or

(b) threatens the person's safety; or

(c) marginalises the person through failing to provide access to:

(i) adequate personal amenities; or

(ii) the economic and social supports that a home normally affords; or

SAAP Act 1994.txt

(d) places the person in circumstances which threaten or adversely affect the adequacy, safety, security and affordability of that housing.

Person living in SAAP accommodation

(3) For the purposes of this Act, a person is taken to have inadequate access to safe and secure housing if:

- (a) the person is living in accommodation provided under SAAP; and
- (b) the assessment of the person's eligibility for that accommodation was based on the application of subsection (1) or (2) (ignoring the effect of this subsection).

Generality of subsection (1)

(4) Subsections (2) and (3) do not limit the generality of subsection (1).

Object

SECT

Funding of SAAP

5. (1) The object of this Act is to grant financial assistance to the States to administer a program, to be known as the Supported Accommodation Assistance Program ("SAAP").

Note: A description of the aims etc. of SAAP is set out below.

Aim of SAAP

(2) The overall aim of SAAP is to provide transitional supported accommodation and related support services, in order to help people who are homeless to achieve the maximum possible degree of self-reliance and independence. Within this aim the goals are:

- (a) to resolve crisis; and
- (b) to re-establish family links where appropriate; and
- (c) to re-establish a capacity to live independently of SAAP.

How the aim of SAAP is to be achieved

(3) The aim of SAAP is to be achieved by:

- (a) providing or arranging for the provision of support services and supported accommodation; and
- (b) helping people who are homeless to obtain long-term, secure and affordable housing or accommodation and support services.

Services are said to be provided under SAAP if the provision of the services is covered by paragraph (a) or (b).

Other key features of SAAP

(4) Other key features of SAAP are as follows:

- (a) SAAP is to be implemented principally through common-form agreements between the Commonwealth and the States;
- (b) the parties to such agreements are to endeavour to work together in a co-operative relationship where the contributions of each party are valued equally;
- (c) the parties to such agreements are to endeavour to work co-operatively with local government bodies and service providers in connection with the provision of services under SAAP;
- (d) SAAP is to promote an image of people who are homeless that emphasises their human dignity and the fact that, irrespective of their current circumstances, they are entitled to opportunities that will enable them to participate fully in community life;
- (e) SAAP is to encourage innovation in the provision of services to people who are homeless;
- (f) SAAP is to safeguard clients' rights and deal with clients'

SAAP Act 1994.txt

responsibilities through measures including, but not limited to:
(i) the development of grievance and appeals procedures; and
(ii) the development of charters of clients' rights and responsibilities.

Responsibilities of service providers

SECT

7. A form of agreement specified in an instrument under section 6 must include provisions that are directed towards assisting service providers, over time, to fulfil the following responsibilities:

(a) to help people who are homeless to resolve crisis, and to achieve greater independence, through the following:

- (i) case management;
- (ii) assessment and referral;
- (iii) if appropriate-early intervention and re-establishment of family links;

(b) to further the integration into the community of people who are homeless by increasing access to the following:

- (i) employment;
- (ii) education and training;
- (iii) health services (including mental health services);
- (iv) disability and rehabilitation services;
- (v) children's support services;
- (vi) income support;
- (vii) other appropriate opportunities and resources;

(c) to help people who are homeless to obtain long-term, secure and affordable housing and accommodation by providing access to a range of options suitable to their needs;

(d) to complement other services available to people who are homeless.

SUPPORTED ACCOMMODATION ASSISTANCE ACT 1994 No. 162, 1994 - SECT 8
Key matters to be dealt with in form of agreement

SECT

8. A form of agreement specified in an instrument under section 6 must deal with the following matters:

- (a) implementing case management;
- (b) developing assessment and referral mechanisms;
- (c) introducing early intervention and outreach;
- (d) enhancing the skill levels of the service provider work force compatible with core competencies;
- (e) strengthening the links between service sectors;
- (f) the efficiency and effectiveness of program management (including both Commonwealth and State planning, administration and advisory mechanisms);
- (g) establishing the means by which the civil, political, economic and social rights of people who are homeless may be preserved and protected by service providers;
- (h) ensuring that outcomes and/or targets in relation to people who are homeless are taken into account in the granting of financial assistance for the provision of services under SAAP;
- (i) establishing reporting and accountability arrangements;
- (j) establishing networks of support between service providers.
