

Fishing ... Sailing ... Bushwalking ... it's all about lifestyle

An opportunity exists for an Addiction Specialist to consider a career move to Tasmania. We are looking for an:

- Addiction Medicine Specialist – long term
- Addiction Medicine Specialist or doctor with an interest in the ATOD – short term
- Addiction Medicine Registrar

The Tasmanian Alcohol and Drug Service are seeking an Addiction Medicine Specialist who will become an integral part of a small dynamic professional team.

Our team of senior staff have joined us from all over Australia and they have an amazing wealth and range of experience.

We will provide assistance with travel and accommodation and will negotiate a very competitive package with the right applicant. Both short and long term contracts are available.

We can offer you work variety, a comprehensive induction package and the support of an onsite Clinical Director.

Only one hour from Melbourne, Hobart offers all the benefits of a major metropolitan city but with a relaxed and laid back lifestyle. Rediscover the joys of connecting with community and your environment.

Affordable real estate, fresh air, spectacular scenery, world renowned food and wine and outstanding sporting and recreational activity ... if these attributes appeal to you then talk to us.

Tasmania will revitalise you.

If you would like more information, please contact:

Dr Adrian Reynolds, Clinical Director
Alcohol & Drug Service
Ph: (03) 6214 5706
E: adrian.reynolds@dhhs.tas.gov.au

