

Some demographic comparisons of allied health professions

Figure 1: Median age of each allied health profession compared with the median age of all DHHS allied health professions

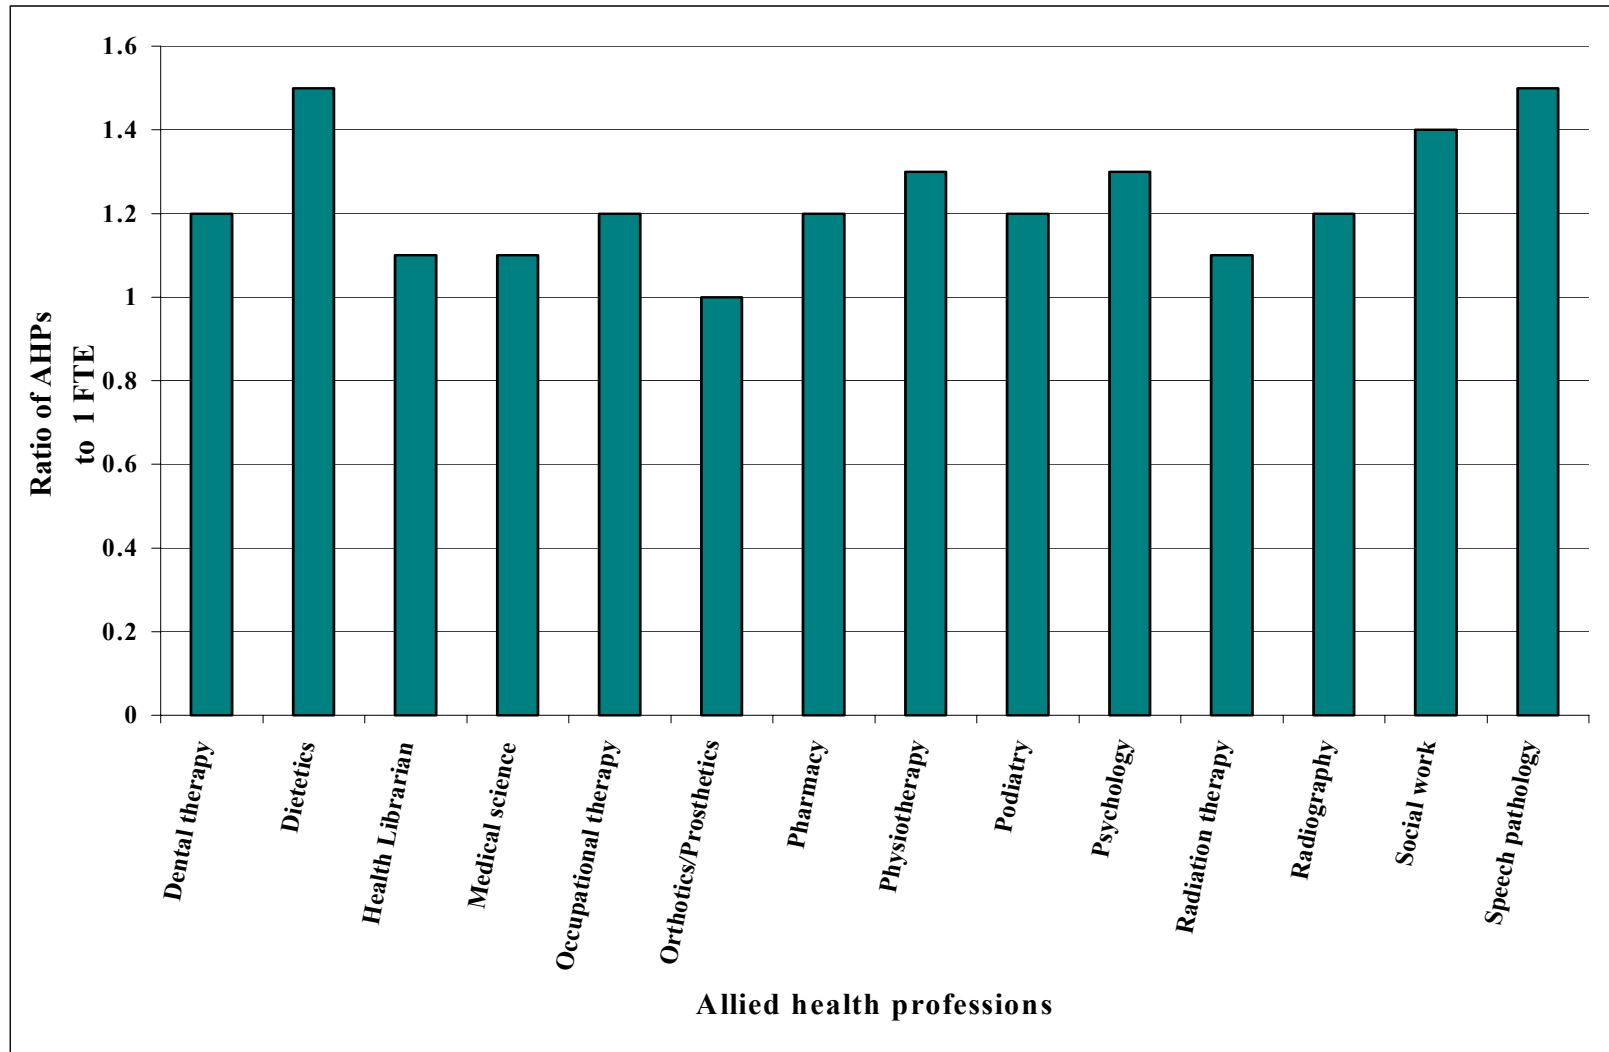

Source: DHHS Human Resources Information System 21 March 2002

Figure 2: Percentage of female staff employed in each DHHS allied health profession

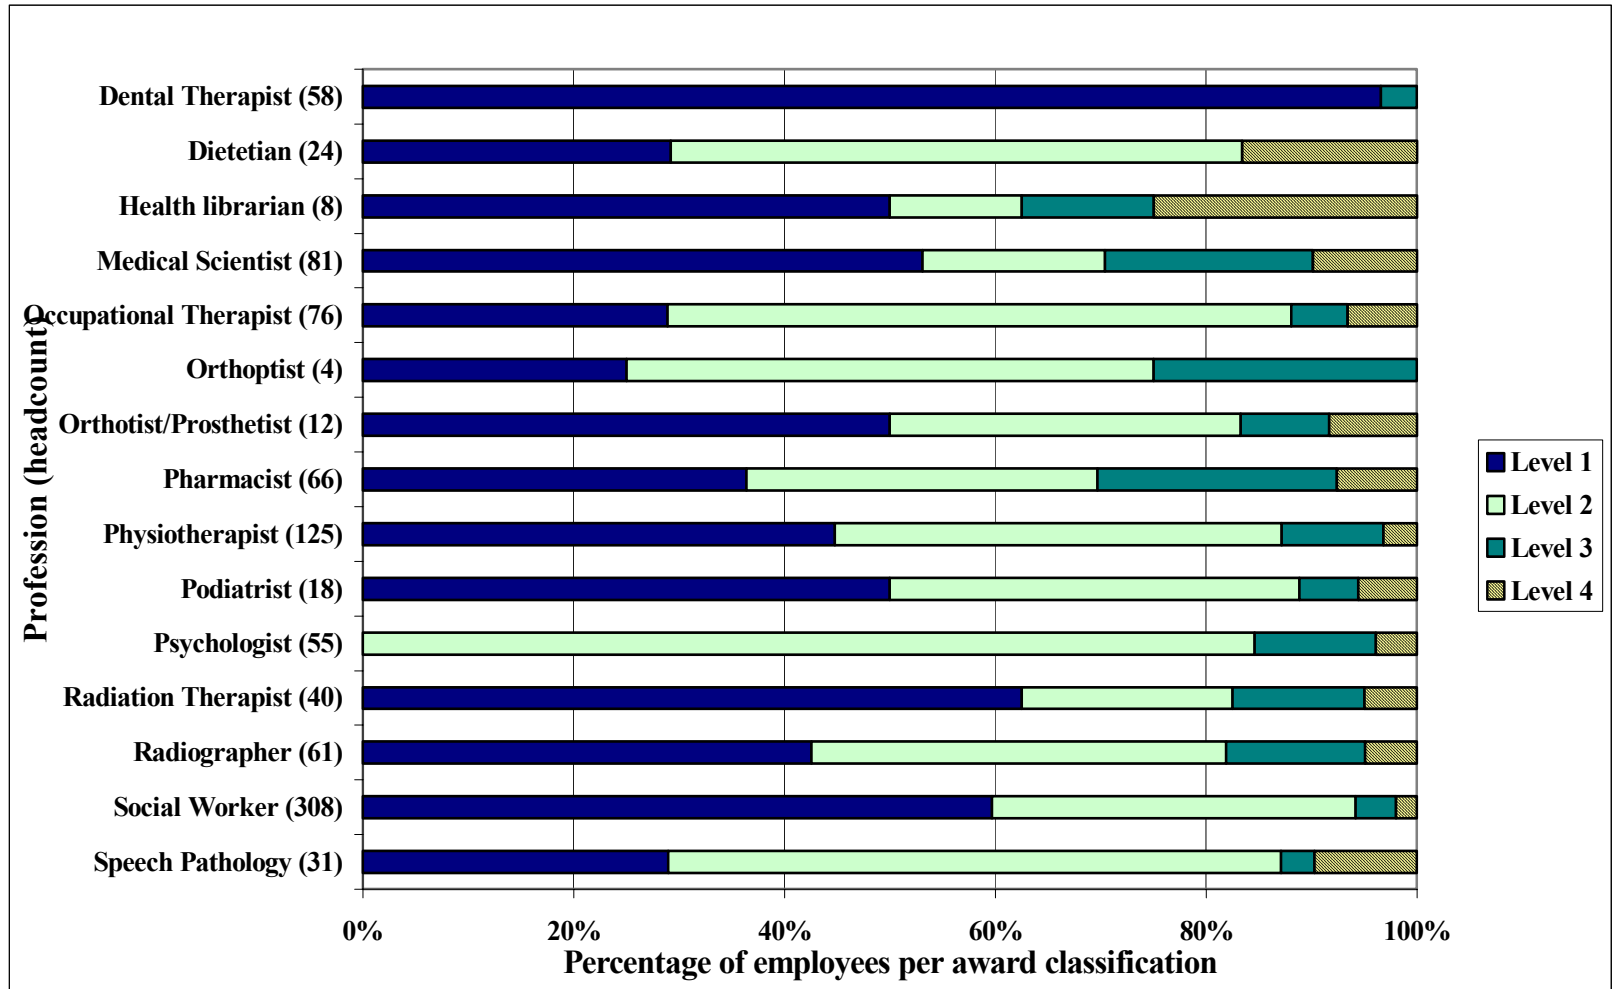

Source: DHHS Human Resources Information System 21 March 2002

Figure 3: A comparison of the ratios of DHHS allied health professionals to one FTE

Source: DHHS Human Resources Information System 21 March 2002

Figure 4 Percentage of the DHHS allied health professional workforce per award level per profession

Source: DHHS Human Resources Information System 21 March 2002

Note: Caution should be taken with interpreting the information for the social work and psychology professions as a number of these professionals occupied generic positions in addition to specific professional positions. Where no data was available for a particular profession, the profession has not been represented in the graph.