

Minds do Matter

Aspire Art Exhibition 2011

Martin Weitnauer Structural Play 2010

Minds do Matter uses the visual arts to create a unique and inspirational opportunity to share the insight, experience and stories of people who have an experience of mental illness.

The exhibition focuses on the relationship between art and wellbeing through celebrating art's power to be life enhancing and life affirming. Selected works from the exhibition will be featured on postcards and distributed to the community to promote the vital place of art in health.
