TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. Nominees must be currently employed as a nurse or midwife in the public sector in Tasmania.
2. You can nominate others or a team. Self-nominations will only be accepted for team nominations. Nominations in more than one category require separate nomination forms.
3. Only one winner will be chosen from each of the Excellence Award categories.
4. Nominators are required to address the criteria specific for the selected Excellence Award in no more than 250 words per criterion.
5. All nursing and midwifery team members (where relevant) must hold current registration with the Nursing and Midwifery Board of Australia.
6. By accepting the nomination, nominees acknowledge they do not have any conditions or undertakings relating to unsatisfactory professional performance or unprofessional conduct. If a nominee is subsequently found to have conditions or undertakings relating to unsatisfactory professional performance or unprofessional conduct their nomination will be withdrawn.
7. All nominations will be treated with the strictest of confidence.
8. All nominations must be the original work of the author and factually accurate.
9. All nominees must meet the eligibility criteria in full.
10. All nomination forms must include the contact details of the relevant line manager.
11. Nominators must complete all relevant details; incomplete nominations will not be considered.
12. Completed nominations are to be received no later than midnight (AEDT) on 07 Feb 2020. Any applications received after this deadline will not be considered.
13. A confirmation email will be sent to the nominator once the submission is received. If this email is not received please check your spam or junk email, otherwise your nomination has not been received. Check the website for contact details re lost submissions.
14. Only nominees who have been short-listed for consideration as a finalist will be notified. Feedback to all other nominees will not be provided.
15. The judging panels consists of members with extensive experience in nursing and midwifery and decide on the winner of each category for the Excellence Awards.
16. The selection process for award winners will be conducted under the supervision of the Office of the Chief Nurse and Midwife and the Office of the Statewide Executive Director of Nursing and Midwifery. The decisions of the judging panel will be final, and no correspondence will be entered into.
17. All nominees will need to provide consent to the use of any media/photos/submissions or any detail for future promotional purposes or publications.
18. All nominations submitted become the property of the Department of Health (DoH) and the Tasmanian Health Service (THS) and will not be returned, including any photographs or any resources included.
19. The winner of each award category will be announced at the Tasmanian Nursing and Midwifery Excellence Awards Function on 8 May 2020.
20. The Tasmanian Department of Health and the Tasmanian Health Service reserves the right to use any media/photos/submissions or any detail for promotional purposes and publications.
21. It is a condition of entry that finalists and winners are available for publicity opportunities, which may include DoH, THS or external print, digital or TV media.